

Statman, Harris & Eyrich, LLC Announces Investigation of Charter Communications, Inc.'s
Rebate Programs for Possible Breaches of Contract and Violation of Consumer Protection Laws

CINCINNATI, April 22, 2010 – ATTORNEY ADVERTISING - The class action law firm Statman, Harris & Eyrich, LLC (“Statman Harris”) has commenced an investigation into possible breaches of contract and consumer protection laws by Charter Communications, Inc. Statman Harris is investigating consumer complaints about Charter Communications’ rebate programs (the “Rebate Programs”). Charter Communications’ customers have complained that, among other problems, despite complying with the terms of the Rebate Programs, they never received their rebates, the amount of the rebate was incorrect, or the materials necessary to apply for the rebate did not arrive in a timely fashion or did not arrive at all.

If you participated in one of Charter Communications’ Rebate Programs but did not receive your rebate, the rebate was incorrect, or you experienced other difficulties, and would like to learn more about these claims, please contact Elizabeth Hutton, Esq. at (888) 876-7881, via e-mail at ehutton@statmanharris.com or via online form at http://www.statmanharris.com/classaction\_form.asp for further information without any obligation or cost to you.
