Cincinnati, February 24, 2009 – Attorney Advertising

The class action law firm of Statman, Harris & Eyrich, LLC announces it is investigating the business practices of numerous alleged sellers of products, including but not limited to Tire Kingdom, Ashley Furniture, La-Z Boy, Bassett Furniture, the Big Screen Stores, numerous car companies and car dealerships, and others for alleged deceptive marketing and selling of vouchers for free gasoline through Tidewater in exchange for purchasing their products. The Attorney General of Florida has filed suit to cause Tidewater to cease doing business. Tidewater has closed its offices. It is alleged that the vouchers for free gasoline offered by the retailers have not been honored and/or will not be honored in the future.

Statman, Harris & Eyrich, LLC, is currently investigating the alleged deceptive marketing and selling practices related to the vouchers for free gasoline. If you have purchased products from these or other retailers with offers of free gasoline related to the purchase and have not received the free gasoline promised with such purchase and wish to discuss this investigation, please contact our firm for further information without any obligation or cost to you.

Statman Harris & Eyrich, LLC has offices in Chicago, Illinois; Cincinnati, Ohio; Dayton, Ohio; and Sarasota, Florida. www.statmanharris.com
